Q: Can't scroll an image over a div I don't know what's wrong here, I'm trying to make a scroll view for an image so I can add a view around it. I tried some things like div.overlay { position: relative; width: 100%; height: 180px; background-color: #0C0B13; cursor: move; -webkit-box-shadow: 3px 3px 7px rgba(0, 0, 0, .75); -moz-box-shadow: 3px 3px 7px 5px rgba(0, 0, 0, .75); box-shadow: 3px 3px 7px 5px rgba(0, 0, 0, .75); } but the image doesn't scroll, is it something with position: absolute? A: You can try using overflow:auto on the container. With position:absolute it needs to have the parent element as it's position. example The container is now the parent element for both of the divs (the top div and the bottom div) and its position:relative; is now meaningless Image copyright Alamy Physiotherapists are advising people to use free online resources to reduce their
