2005–06 UEFA Champions League qualifying phase

The qualifying phase of the 2005–06 UEFA Champions League was played from 1 September to 12 November 2004. 64 teams competed in this round, from 32 of the 49 UEFA member associations (after Ukraine and Russia were excluded). This year, only three points would be awarded for a win and one for a draw. To be eligible to enter this round, teams had to be either in the top eight of their domestic league (for clubs outside the top three, if they had a domestic league season) or qualify based on their results in the 2005 UEFA Intertoto Cup.

Format

In the qualifying phase, each tie is played over two legs, with each team playing one leg at home. The team that scores more goals on aggregate over the two legs advances to the next round. If the
